DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 12, 27, 29 and 34, are objected to because of the following informalities:
In claim 12, "said one second medical imaging device" should be changed to --said second medical imaging device--. In claim 27 line 2, it appears that "with to" should be --with respect to--. In claim 29, it appears that "37" should be --17--. In claim 34, it appears that "said at least one second medical imaging device" should be changed to --said one second medical imaging device--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 38 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ferre et al. of record.

Ferre et al. disclose an endoscopic imaging device (106) and invasive tool (100); first and second position measuring components (108, 102); and an image processor (114) and corresponding display (20).

3. Claims 1-22, 24-27 and 29-37, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Vesely et al. (6,019,725).

Vesely et al. disclose a three-dimensional tracking system and method including imaging with a first (e.g., x-ray, ultrasound, etc.) imaging device; sensing the position of a second (e.g., intravascular ultrasound, surface patch - col. 15 lines 26-40) imaging device with respect to the first imaging device; and calculating and displaying the position/image of the second imaging device with respect to the first imaging device including fusing the (still or moving) images and providing recognizable targets for registration (col. 15 line 52 – col. 16 line 44, col. 19 lines 36-62 and col. 21 lines 30-44). See also figures 11 and 16. Vesely et al. also reflects motion of the invasive device on the display screen. Moreover, Vesely et al. disclose wherein the position measuring system (1600) is a magnetic or acoustic based system (col. 12 lines 52-54).

4. Claims 1-37, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gilboa (2002/0193686).

Gilboa demonstrate a known method and apparatus for imaging with a first medical imaging device (22, e.g., x-ray); sensing the position of a second medical imaging device (52, intracardiac ultrasound probe, etc.); and calculating and displaying the position/image of the second imaging device with respect to the first imaging device including fusing the (still or moving) images and providing recognizable targets for registration (fig. 1A, [0005-8]). Gilboa also teach first and second (e.g., electromagnetic) position measuring components (40, 40a/32) attached to the first and second imaging devices. Additionally, Gilboa teach the use of a “third” measuring component (30, 44). Gilboa further reflects motion of the ultrasound probe on the display screen.
